

Northumbria Advanced Motorcyclists March Ride Out, Sunday 17th 2013

‘Wilf’s boat and Kirkharle-a short coast and country loop around Northumberland’

(If the weather is fine and there is a good turnout would Associates and any guest riders please go in the third group lead by John Magee. First Group Leader David Henderson, Back Marker Roland McLeod. Second Group Leader Michael Sutherland, Back Marker Jack Stewart)

Time	Approx Miles
-------------	---------------------

10am Depart Seaton Burn Services, north on old A1, join A1 briefly, exit at Stannington, make towards Stannington Station, turn left on A192 to Morpeth.
---	--

From Morpeth take the A197 towards Ashington.

Turn right on A189 then left on B1334 to Newbiggin, follow road right to Newbiggin Point and the Marine Heritage Centre.

10.40 Coffee and optional brief visit to marine museum	18
---	-----------

11.30 Depart Newbiggin on A197 via Woodhorn then to Lynemouth. Take the unclassified coastal road to Cresswell and Druridge joining the A1068 at Widdrington.
--	--

Continue North on the A1068 to Alnwick, proceed through the arch.

Take the B6341 west towards Edlingham.

Join the A697 southbound to Morpeth.

Just before approaching Morpeth town centre turn right on the B6343 to Cambo.

Turn south on the B6342 passing Wallington Hall, taking care when crossing the A696.

The Kirkharle Centre is a third of a mile on the right.	90
---	-----------

1.00pm Lunch stop

Depart 2.15pm approximately

Return to Seaton Burn via Belsay, Ponteland and Berwick Hill	110
--	------------

3.00pm Ride ends